Urgent care medicine is a specialty that focuses on providing patients with convenient and affordable treatment for their non-life-threatening injuries and illnesses. An urgent care physician is a physician who works in an urgent care facility. These facilities offer help to those needing immediate attention but are not injured or sick enough to warrant a trip to the hospital.

Among his philanthropic endeavors, Dr. Jacinthe is a supporter of Hand of Hope, the world missions outreach of Joyce Meyer Ministries. Its goal is to help the hurting and help Christians grow in their faith.

On a more personal note, he speaks multiple languages, including English and Spanish.
