WHAT ADVICE WOULD YOU GIVE TO ANOTHER EXPAT FAMILY?

Stay open-minded. View it as an experience. As an opportunity for your children to meet new people, and learn new things. Go for it and fully embrace it.

If people ask to meet up with you, just meet up with them. Go and meet as many different people as you can, and you will finally find your way. You'll find your friends, you'll find your group.

Nothing is forever. This is just a part of us as a family and a part of my children's childhood that hopefully they'll look back on and see as an amazing adventure. An amazing experience.

Maybe we're staying here forever, maybe only for a few years, who knows?
Take every opportunity that life has to offer.

One of the things to do is embrace all of the stuff that you couldn't do in your country or city that you are from. Travel to the UAE and show them that the UAE has got so much more to offer than just Dubai.

It's important for a mother they understand the local culture in the country they are leaving in.
