Get to know Certified Registered Nurse Practitioner, Fadila Kakaye, who works in Largo, Maryland.

New York City, New York Apr 26, 2023 (Issuewire.com) - A certified registered nurse practitioner, Fadila works with patients to provide hands-on health care at UM Capital Region Medical Center in Largo, Maryland.

With experience in providing compassionate care, she is highly skilled at conducting patients' assessments, physical examinations, and diagnostic studies.

Eager to grow and excel as a nurse practitioner, Fadila has a strong focus on high-quality, patient-centered healthcare, whether in-person or in a Telehealth setting. Some of the health problems that she addresses include acne, itching, burn injuries, cold sores, dry skin, ear pain, hyperpigmentation, and many other acute illnesses, and chronic diseases management. She is also available to conduct annual wellness visits, weight loss consultations, thyroid function tests, pre-travel consultations, and screening for disease/preventive medicine.

In 2020, Fadila graduated with her Master of Science in Nursing degree/Adult-Gerontology Primary Care Nurse Practitioner degree from Walden University. Then, in 2021, she earned the Adult-Gerontology Primary Care Nurse Practitioner (A-GNP) certification through the American Academy of Nurse Practitioners.

To stay up to date in her field, she remains an active member of the American National Association and the Sigma Theta Tau International Honor Society of Nursing.

A Certified Registered Nurse Practitioner (CRNP) is a nurse with advanced education and clinical training in a health care specialty area. Nurse practitioners work with people of all ages and their families, providing information people need to make informed decisions about their health care and lifestyle choices.

On a more personal note, Fadila speaks both English and French.
