

Indar Lange closes on 200th investment property in Hawaii

Honolulu, Hawaii Apr 6, 2023 (IssueWire.com) - Indar Lange, founder and CEO of real estate investment company White Sand Capital, has recently closed 200 investment property deals, as of March of 2023. The Honolulu local created the secondary company White Sand Capital after founding Our Home Investments, a real estate solutions and investment firm that help Hawaiian homeowners receive quick and effective deals on home sales.

The recent accomplishment of 200 properties closed comes after Lange hosted a Mastermind event in mid-February in Waikiki, Honolulu area, featuring panelists of real estate investors from the mainland and Hawaii. Lange has been ramping up efforts towards investments for White Sand Capital to bring on 50 more investors and 30 more doors within the next 6 months.

Following off the heels of his event in Waikiki, Lange appeared as a guest speaker on Think Tech Hawaii's podcast, Think Tank News. The podcast, which is led by the non-profit organization, aims to showcase guests in order to provide a platform for civic engagement by citizen journalists. raising public awareness and providing a platform for civic engagement by citizen journalists, The CEO discussed how individuals can get a start in the real estate space, the initial first steps one should take, and the current direction the real estate market is in.

"One of the greatest rewards is being able to see a home that is inhabitable or neglected come back to life," says Lange, discussing how flipping homes for him is more of a passion than just a job. "I love working on flips because it's the hard & dirty work that not everyone is willing and able to do to create more homes for people to live in."

White Sand Capital has more upcoming for the month of April, as the company plans to expand the community to help more people create wealth within real estate and investing. Lange is launching a real estate investing educational course this summer to help educate how people can invest while still making their money work for them, in a tier 1 market like Hawaii.

"There is so much money available, you just have to find it and know how it works. Private money lenders in your network can also help you start to build equity in different deals," states Lange on how to get started within the real estate investment business.

If you'd like to find out more about White Sand Capital and real estate investment opportunities, you can visit their home page or check out their social platforms, such as Instagram. You can always contact info@ourhomeinvestments.com for more information regarding business opportunities, or questions for the founder.

About Our Home Investments and White Sand Capital:

We are the #1 home investment team in the State of Hawaii with over 100 projects completed across Hawaii and the mainland. Through extensive research, we buy all of our properties off-market to help folks with their foreclosures, financial responsibilities, and privacy concerns. These properties we invest in are physically vetted and taken through multiple deal analyzers to ensure we have the best opportunities for our investors. We offer investment opportunities for our different projects across the nation to empower people to make the best decision with their money.

Media Contact: info@indarhawaii.com

Media Kit

Instagram

Podcast

Interested in learning more? Book a free intro call and let's chat!

<https://calendly.com/indarhawaii/15min>

Media Contact

White Sand Capital

sarah@ourhomeinvestments.com

Source : White Sand Capital

See on IssueWire