

New Book Release: “A Life Worthy of Death”

New York City, New York Apr 13, 2023 (Issuewire.com) - Dommartini Salien, Sr. (Martini), a Haitian-American writer, has announced the release of his debut novel, “A Life Worthy of Death” Shaken Not Stirred, LLC. The book is a coming-of-age story that follows the life of Dominique, a young Haitian boy, as he navigates through the challenges of boyhood in the face of extreme poverty and a corrupt dictatorship.

“A Life Worthy of Death” is a powerful narrative that speaks to the experiences of many young brown and black youth who face similar challenges in their daily lives. Through this story, the author hopes to inspire young readers to stay connected to their roots and history and to know they can overcome adversity through resilience and perseverance.

The author's own experiences growing up in Haiti and later immigrating to the United States have shaped his writing. He hopes that his book will serve as a source of inspiration and hope for all readers, particularly young readers of color.

“A Life Worthy of Death” is a timely addition to the literary landscape, particularly in light of ongoing conversations about diversity, equity, and inclusion in children's literature. The book is a must-read for anyone who wants to gain a deeper understanding of the experiences of young people growing up in underprivileged communities.

“A Life Worthy of Death” is available now in print and e-book formats through major retailers. To learn more about the author and his work, visit his website at www.shakennotstirred09.com
