Nestled in a small, idyllic town in Delaware lies the Rose Elaine Manor, embellished with fabulous flower gardens that attract travelers worldwide. At least, it used to. When a storm decimates the beloved haven, 35-year-old business owner Rose realizes the restoration process is not for the faint of heart. She will need all the help she can get to honor her family's legacy... and maybe even find love in the process.

Can Rose navigate through family politics, small-town busy-bodies, and a heart-fluttering romance, all while rebuilding the Rose Elaine Manor to its former glory? Not alone! After the devastating storm, the manor's guests band together with Rose and her loving housekeepers to keep the once-thriving inn alive. As Rose rides the ups and downs of responsibility, she doesn't have time for much else...until a poetic art teacher at the manor lends a hand and captures her heart, reminding her that she doesn't have to toil through life's struggles alone.

Immerse yourself in this inspiring series full of community values, female empowerment, and a wholesome romance that will remind you that even the most intimidating goals can be achieved when people come together.
