

Pakistani Famous Guitarist Rana Shahid Made His Own Guitar by Himself

Rahim Yar Khan, Punjab May 24, 2023 (Issuewire.com) - Rana Shahid, one of the most renowned guitarists in Pakistan, has revealed that he made his own guitar by himself. The musician, known for his versatile and innovative style of playing, said he wanted to create a unique instrument that would suit his musical vision and personality.

Rana Shahid, who has been playing guitar since he was 17 years old, said that he was inspired by the legendary Pakistani singer Atif Aslam and guitarist late Amir Zaki. Rana Shahid said that he spent months researching and experimenting with different materials, shapes, and sounds until he came up with his final product. The guitar, which he named “Goonj”, is an acoustic guitar with a local wood which gave him the best balance of tone, sustain, and versatility.

Rana Shahid said that he is very proud of his creation and that he considers it his musical partner. He said that he has used it for initial learning as a beginner. He said he hopes his guitar will inspire other musicians and guitar enthusiasts to pursue their own creative projects.

Rana Shahid is currently working on his new song, which he said will feature more of his original compositions and collaborations with other artists. He said that he plans to tour internationally soon. He said that he is looking forward to sharing his music and his guitar with the world.

For more information about Rana Shahid, please visit him on social media platforms.

YouTube Link: <https://www.youtube.com/@RanaShahidMusic>

Facebook page: <https://www.facebook.com/Ranashahidmusic>

Instagram: <https://www.instagram.com/ranashahidmusic>

Media Contact

RS music

shahidguitar@gmail.com

Source : RS Music

See on IssueWire