Mumbai, Maharashtra Apr 19, 2023 (Issuewire.com) - Shop from an exclusive curation of brands showcasing sustainable fashion, accessories, skincare, and home decor

The Curators Den by Manjari Agarwal and Paridhi Jain has organised the first of its kind event The ORGANIC EDIT at the NOOK, Bandra on Thursday, 20th April, 2023 with only organic products specially curated for discerning consumers. Organic products are a healthy choice for everyone and one can select from a choice of sustainable fashion, accessories, skincare, and home decor.

Accessories from prominent Lakmé Fashion designers, and sustainable jewellery with designs that will captivate are also available here! From comfortable sleepwear, or organic and soft bedding for homes, there are affordable luxurious Bedsheets for purchase along with divine, environmentally friendly brands making soy wax candles and beautiful diffusers. Beauty and skincare range from brands using age-old recipes from ancestors with wholesome ingredients. The organic edit also showcases beautiful footwear from a sustainable peta-certified brand.

Quoting Hubert De Givency “Luxury is in each detail,” Manjari Agarwal and Paridhi Jain, Mompreneurs and founders of The Curators Den said, “We aim to curate & handpick fresh, unique, and luxurious experiences for a discerning audience who appreciate a fine lifestyle and conscious choices. Through these targeted exhibitions, pop-ups, or workshops - The Curators Den will curate and create a theme-based selection for targeted groups of audiences. We cut through the clutter & provide a bespoke shopping experience.”

They further added “At the event happening on the 20th of April 2023 at the Nook, the Organic Edit will showcase a range of designers from across India that are doing sustainable fashion, with style options for each and every one. Whether it’s food, fashion, accessories or skin care the Organic Edit has it all!”
