Los Angeles, California May 30, 2023 (IssueWire.com) - Emergo Academy offers robust coach education and certification programs with a niche or specialization as a 'Recovery Coach' (as opposed to a generic life coach). Emergo's proven recovery coaching methodology specializes in and reaches a growing and in-demand market.

Like it or not, the brain drives behavior.

And neuroscience shows us that when we change our brains, we change our life.

Emergo Academy has trained hundreds of professionals to coach, inspire, and impact people by leveraging Actualized Recovery®—The Brain-first Approach™ to Lasting Recovery and Thriving.

Emergo Academy's co-founders, Dave Kenney, and Susan Kenney, embrace that trauma, addictions, and self-destructive behavioral patterns are driven by brain function.
