

All-new QAIO Flex Fitness Mirror – The Perfect Addition to Any Home Gym with its Stylish Design and Smart Technology!

The QAIO Flex Fitness Mirror offers an extensive smart application library of classes, including yoga, strength training, cardio, and more.

Newport Beach, California May 4, 2023 (Issuewire.com) - Evervue USA Inc., A world leader in manufacturing Outdoor TVs, Bathroom TVs, Kitchen TVs, and Smart Mirrors for over 20 years, introduces an interactive smart fitness mirror called QAIO Flex. This revolutionary product provides a completely new fitness experience. It features an interactive smart touch display that doubles as a stylish mirror when not in use. Compatible with both Android and IOS workout applications, QAIO Flex allows gym enthusiasts to track their progress and follow workout instructions at the same time through an elegant mirror.

Multiple QAIO Flex units can be installed in gyms and fitness studios, giving them a competitive edge while providing clients with effective and personalized training. With virtual coaching sessions, the latest fitness classes, and group training options, QAIO Flex caters to those who prefer in-home workouts without sacrificing the quality of a gym workout. Additionally, users can stay informed while gaining muscle with the Mirror Feeds app, which provides time, stock quotes, weather, and news updates.

And for those who want to take their workouts to the next level, the QAIO Flex Fitness Mirror also includes an 8MP HD built-in camera that allows you to take high-quality videos and pictures or talk to the mirror with the help of Google Assistant. You can also sync the QAIO Flex to Google Home, easily swipe or choose your next session with the 10-point touchscreen control and enjoy the 4K Ultra High-definition resolution for beautiful and vibrant picture quality.

Designed with functionality and style in mind, the QAIO Flex Fitness Mirror is available in multiple sizes and finishes, so you can choose the perfect fit for your home gym. Plus, with different mounting options for easy installation, the QAIO Flex Fitness Mirror is the hassle-free choice for a smarter, more convenient workout experience.

Discover and upgrade your home gym with the QAIO Flex Fitness Mirror - the ultimate fitness solution for the modern home. Visit <https://www.myqaio.com/qaio-flex/> and get your life back balance again.
