

Augustine Tours Launched Exciting 7-Day Uganda Rwanda Burundi African Wildlife Gorilla Trekking for Travellers

Kigali-ngali, Rwanda Jan 2, 2026 (IssueWire.com) - With 15 years of expertise in the travel and hospitality industry, Augustin Ndikuriyo has always tried to introduce something unique yet exciting for travelers. The members at Augustine Tours, therefore, strongly believe in "The world is a book, and those who don't travel only read one page", quoted by Saint Augustine. However, this company has recently announced the most exhilarating itinerary for nomads. One can now book a beautiful Uganda Rwanda Burundi Overland tour while appreciating the history and culture of these three countries.

Well, the CEO of Augustine Tours has declared "Since its launch, the 7-day Gorilla trekking tour has attracted a good number of inquiries from June through September". It seems the African wildlife safari arranged by this veteran tour company will win the hearts of millions of travelers. It is always expected from Augustine Tours experts to sketch a flawless tour plan and therefore, this new initiative is adding perks to the enthusiasm of the wanderers.

While accumulating the information, it has come to notice that people will get to visit places that share a different experience. The tour guide from Augustine Tours will meet you at Kigali International on the very first day and will share information about the safari taking place on the next day. The Kigali city tour also involves an amazing tour of the Gisozi genocide memorial and the Presidential Palace Museum. You will get a chance to visit the former state house addressing Rwandan history & debris from a presidential plane crash. However, day 3 seems more exciting for the travelers as it allocates you the seats for the gorilla trekking where you will feel amused while going through the Bwindi mountain forest.

On day 4 you will be transferred to Nyanza King's Palace and here you will explore the rich heritage of the palace. Moreover, your drive to Bujumbura and a walk on the shores of Lake Tanganyika on the fifth day of this trip will leave you with a wave of ultimate inner peace. On the next day, the beauty of Karera waterfalls along with the view of the source of the Nile in Rutovu will add more amusement to your tour. A visit to Gitega national museum will blow your mind as you can see an eccentric collection of artifacts and antiquities from Burundi and Gishora drum sanctuary.

Coming to the end date, Augustine Tours won't fail to surprise you as this day arranges a visit to Rusizi National Park where you can sightsee the hippos and birds in a boat journey. Throughout the tour, the professional tour guides at Augustine Tours truly enjoy sharing their knowledge with the travelers. Well, Augustine Tours seems to flourish its business quickly over the period. It took just 8 years for the founder and diligent team when they noticed significant growth from European customers and therefore, a new office in Germany named Augustine Tours-Europe has been introduced to make it more viable to the tourists out there. However, this 7-day tour plan involves more exclusive places to explore, and browsing the official website of Augustine Tours will help you learn more.

AugustineTours

@augustinetours.com

Source : AugustineTours

See on IssueWire