

Bryson Halbrook, Recognized by BestAgents.us as a 2023 Top Agent

Specializing in residential and investment properties, Bryson is passionate about helping his clients get the most out of their investment.

New York City, New York May 8, 2023 (IssueWire.com) - Serving the Lake Hartwell area in both Northeast Georgia and Upstate South Carolina, Bryson is a real estate agent with Team 962 brokered by EXP Realty.

Committed to providing his clients with exceptional service, he strives to ensure that their real estate investment is a positive experience. He is passionate about helping people find their dream homes and acquiring assets that are going to increase in value over time while they also gain equity every month.

A graduate of Franklin County High School, class of 2022, Bryson has been immersed in the real estate industry since childhood. From birth, he was around large real estate developments and new construction homes. His expertise and passion for helping others has enabled him to reach incredible heights in the real estate business. In just 6 months, he closed 20 transactions totaling $4.3 million.

At the age of 18, Bryson was not only able to help others with their real estate needs, he also purchased his own personal investment property, a commercial property located in Royston, Georgia.

Bryson has grown a passion for first time home buyers. He strives to help others his age start life ahead with a home purchase instead of renting. He takes pride in helping young people and making sure they get the best representation possible.

Attributing his success to the fact that he has grown up in the industry, the experience helps Bryson to understand the needs of his clients.

Outside of the office, he enjoys spending time on the lake, scuba diving with his dad and their dive group, and being a small group leader for 6th grade boys at Lavonia First Baptist.
