Arif always knew she wanted to lead a creative life — he just never imagined it would entail a career in fashion. "I had my heart set on becoming a car designer or an architect," but my mother guided me to pursue fashion design, looking at my creative eye for fashion from a very young age.

In the 2010s, he took classes in art and illustration and went to pursue design from London college of fashion, then in Preston City and launched his own design manufacturing company in Dubai. he later launched his own designer label in Dubai fashion week in 2011. His debut collection immediately caught the eye of many fashion organizations around the world and they invited him to showcase his designs at Mercedes Benz fashion week in Australia, Europe, New York, and India.

His unique creative design skills landed him many offers to design and style A-list celebrities in Hollywood for the top award events like Ammy's, Oscars, Golden Globe, Cannes, etc. making him one of the top and most beloved Hollywood celebrity fashion designer followed by many appearances on news channels and talk shows as a fashion expert, making him loved not only behind the scenes but on camera as well.

Arif Patel is a known face for his brand in Hollywood and beyond. His personality and confidence has inspired many young budding designers and students who he loved to guide at various college fest events and expert talks as a special guest and coach. He has always been socially active as a philanthropist and raised awareness in society and contributed towards the betterment and upliftment of women.

Arif believes in learning throughout his journey, as knowledge is never enough. The more one gets, the more it benefits in one's success. Learning, traveling, and meeting new people, and also learning from others' experiences in life also play an important role for a creative person.

"I get inspired in different walks of life and by the smallest of things. One must just keep your eyes and mind open to see the beauty in everything around us."- says Arif Patel.
