Frankfort, Kentucky May 4, 2023 (Issuewire.com) - Former Chiropractor Transitions to Career as Photographer

Todd Cremeans, a former chiropractor with over 10 years of experience in the healthcare industry, has made a career change to become a professional photographer.

Todd discovered his passion for portrait photography when his daughter would ask him to photograph her for various events while she was in high school. This ignited a spark that led him to explore photography further and ultimately make the decision to switch careers.

"I have always enjoyed working with my hands and helping people as a chiropractor, but photography allows me to express my creativity in a different way," Todd says. "I love being able to capture the beauty of the world and people around us and share it with others through my photographs."

Todd has already made a name for himself in the local photography community, with his work being featured in publications such as Lipstik magazine and Kentucky Afield magazine. He specializes in high school seniors, family photography, and heirloom wall art. His unique perspective and eye for detail have garnered praise from critics and audiences alike. He's written multiple blog articles that provide helpful content to his clientele, such as high school senior portrait photography tips, capturing the joy of family, and choosing a photographer skilled in retouching

"I am excited to see where this new path takes me," Todd adds. "Photography has opened up a whole new world of possibilities for me, and I can't wait to see what I can create."

Todd Cremeans Photography stands out from other photographers by his skillful use of off-camera flash and creative lighting, dedication to customer experience, offering wall art, and focus on quality over quantity.
