

Henry Harvin Launches French Language Course in Kolkata

Noida, Uttar Pradesh May 30, 2023 (Issuewire.com) - One of the best ways to use free time is to start learning a new skill, like a second language. We live in an interconnected world where establishing new connections has become crucial. Thus, it can be beneficial for you to learn a new language. In addition to enhancing your career, learning a language improves your memory and brain function. Moreover, learning French, which is extensively used in most parts of the world has plenty of benefits.

Do you want to take a French Language Course in Kolkata?

Kolkata is one of the biggest cities in India and is known as the city of joy. Kolkata is known as the fifth-largest educational hub in India. It has some of the best institutes to take French language courses. However, Henry Harvin, an Ed-tech company established specifically to provide skill-development courses, would be the ideal choice to take a French language course in Kolkata.

French:

The French language is derived from Latin, like many other European languages; hence learning French increases your ability to speak other European languages. In addition to France, French is an official language in 29 other countries. Moreover, nearly 300 million people across five continents speak French. As a result, knowing French enhances your travel experience in Europe. Most importantly, speaking a language like French increases your employment prospects because many multinational companies use French as their working language. Therefore, it is a wise choice to take a French language course in Kolkata.

Henry Harvin:

A global online learning platform established in 2013 to provide training and advisory services to students and organisations. They offer more than 800 upskilling programs across 27 categories. Henry Harvin owns the record for training more than 4,60,000 individuals to date. Through their benchmarked content and resources, they strive to reshape the growth of companies along with students. Moreover, it won awards like best corporate training platform, no: 1 online learning provider and many more.

Henry Harvin's French Language Course in Kolkata:

Henry Harvin's language French Language courses are ranked no: 1 by the Education World. Their French Language course in Kolkata aims to equip candidates with reading, speaking and writing skills to help students ace French language exams like DELF, DALF, DILF, and DCF&TCF. This academy provides training in all French language levels starting from beginner level to proficiency level.

Features of Henry Harvin's French Language Course in Kolkata.

- Primarily, their course curriculum is designed to cover topics as well as lexis.
- Moreover, you will learn grammatical concepts to improve your French language proficiency.
- They deserve appreciation for their 9-in-1 course module, which includes add-on features like projects, internships, masterclass sessions, one-year gold membership and many more.
- The live projects and guaranteed internship program ensure a practical learning experience.
- Besides regular training, they provide masterclass sessions to train you in interview skills.
- Furthermore, their user-friendly LMS permits you to access the course material and recorded classes from their E-learning portal at your convenience.

- Finally, their one-year gold membership provides career support through their placement team.

Levels in French:

- The Beginner's Level A1 covers fundamentals of French vocabulary and Grammar
- The Upper Beginners Level / A2 teaches about expressions that will help you communicate at work, travel and in studies.
- The Intermediate Level /B1 teaches framing sentences by mastering reading, listening and writing skills at this level.
- The Upper Intermediate Level/B2 covers the art of creating lengthy speeches by learning French dialects and challenging texts.
- The Advanced Level/C1: This level helps you understand longer texts and their inner meaning. As a result, you can speak fluently.
- The Proficiency Level/C2 helps you comprehend almost everything. Therefore, you can summarise information from written or oral sources.

Job Support by Henry Harvin:

You can apply for jobs through their exclusive job portal. Moreover, their placement support team provides personalised support to ensure you find a job that meets your requirements. They work with more than 2100 employers, including start-ups and product firms that hire their students. They believe in making educated employable; hence they provide mentored support in the job search.

Other Language Courses at Henry Harvin:

They started the language academy to upskill the candidates with language skills that are in demand. Along with the French language course, they also provide training in Spanish, German, Japanese, Korean and many more languages.

For more details visit:

<https://www.henryharvin.com/language-academy>

Media Contact

Education

Navneetsinghh123@gmail.com

Source : XYZ

See on IssueWire