Clicking on it will open a form to enter information to post a job. You need to fill out this form completely because based on the information in this form, candidates will be displayed to you. By organizing this form properly, you will be provided with suitable candidates for your company. Then, if you click on the job option, you will see all the jobs you have posted, and by clicking on a posted job, you will see how many people have shown interest in that job. This will help you select a candidate. Furthermore, if you go to the profile option, you will see your complete information. If you are the owner of the company, you can add more information about your business, post more jobs, and receive candidates, which will help in the development of your business and facilitate your hiring process. Alternatively, if you are working for a company that recruits staff, and you have changed your job, you can add information about your new
