

International Motion Picture Film Festival in New Jersey offers independent filmmakers great opportunities

A platform for independent filmmakers to showcase their work

Toms River, New Jersey May 16, 2023 (Issuewire.com) - The International Motion Picture Film Festival is aimed at helping filmmakers get their work noticed in the tough industry of movie making. It offers a platform where filmmakers can showcase their work and get recognized and respected in the industry. Winning an award can help a filmmaker stand out and give them a chance to be interviewed on the radio. First-place winners in each category of the festival will have the opportunity to be interviewed on Hamilton Radio and IHeart Radio. The festival is open to short films, documentaries, and features of any genre, and participants can submit their films online for review by the festival judges. The winners will be announced on April 20th, 2024, with the venue being Smodcastle Cinemas owned by Actor Kevin Smith, located in Atlantic Highlands, New Jersey. Judges for the festival include well-known industry professionals like Gene Pierro, the owner of Hamilton Radio; Jimmy Diele, a celebrity spotlight host at iHeartRadio; and Frank Modica, producer, director, writer, and actor of "The Gilbert Diaries - The Movie." Winning films will receive digital certificates and awards, as well as a spot on Hamilton Radio and IHeart Radio for an interview.
