Get to know Neurologist Dr. Joseph Camero, who serves patients in Laredo, Texas.

New York City, New York May 12, 2023 (IssueWire.com) - An adept neurologist with Laredo Medical Center, Dr. Camero offers care to patients who have conditions of the nervous system, such as Parkinson's disease.

Laredo Medical Center is Laredo's largest hospital—a 326-bed licensed acute care facility offering a range of inpatient and outpatient services. Its quality of care has been recognized by respected agencies and national accrediting bodies. Its mission is “To meet the health and medical needs of their community through safe, high-quality and personalized care.”

Graduating with honors from the Medical College of Wisconsin in 1983, Dr. Camero went on to perform his internship in internal medicine at the same educational venue in 1984. He then furthered his training with a residency in neurology at the University of Texas Southwestern Medical Center in 1987.

Holding a license to practice medicine in Texas, he is affiliated with Doctors Hospital of Laredo and Harlingen Medical Center.

Neurology is a branch of medicine dealing with disorders of the nervous system. Neurologists are licensed medical specialists who diagnose and treat disorders that affect the brain, spinal cord, nerves, and muscles of patients. They examine a patient's mental and physical status, conduct medical tests and scans, and evaluate the results to diagnose and treat the patient.

On a more personal note, Dr. Camero speaks both English and Spanish.
