Juan Jackson and his wife Sherreia Jackson, in collaboration with Five Star Productions, are the organizers of the 10th Annual North Carolina's Tailgate & GO GO festival. The event evolved from a neighborhood backyard gathering that was held every Memorial Day Weekend. It was sponsored by Juan's late mother, Joan Jackson Barnes, who was committed to bringing everyone together as a community and used to enjoy seeing everyone getting together to fellowship, laugh, eat, and have fun reminiscing about their childhood and upbringing. While expressing the purpose of carrying forward his mother's legacy, Juan was quoted as saying:

"Over the past ten years, the event has grown tremendously and is held at the Wilson County Fairgrounds hosted by my wife, Sherreia Artis Jackson, and me. We strongly believe that this year is going to be even better than the previous ones," He further added, "We're committed to continuing this event to show respect and gratitude for my mother's work in the community and provide people with a platform where they can reconnect with childhood friends, classmates, and teammates in a fun-full environment."

Five Star Productions are the same team who brought R&B Sensation Howard Hewett to Wake Forest Grand Ballroom in Wake Forest, NC, for Valentine's Day. While giving their message to attendees of the 10th Annual Sunday Funday Wide Awake Wilson festival, they were quoted as saying:

"We're excited to be part of the 10th Annual Tailgate GO GO Festival at the Wilson County Fairgrounds in Wilson, NC. We encourage people to come out to this family day filled with fun, music, and entertainment as it's buzzing in the city."

The audience will enjoy shopping from the vendors, including Angels of Mine, The Wicked Slush, CocoCrissi Tropical Icees, Dana's Sweets, Bridget's Buddha's, Shauntees Epic Line, 7C' Exotic Drinks, Big Boi's Wings, Unika Clothing Line, GIGIS Mobile Food Truck and Hines Jewelry & Thangs.
