

LazerBeam Is Enriching the Hip-Hop Music with His Spontaneous Soundtracks

The Wake Up Call

Tacoma, Washington May 15, 2023 (Issuewire.com) - The immensely talented hip-hop artist Maurice D. Berry also known as LazerBeam is mesmerizing everyone with his exemplary pieces of music. The artist is slowly reaching out to global audiences by delivering a wide range of music. The upbeat and enthusiastic music has churned out the true flavor of the genre. Alongside this, this musician is also captivating listeners' hearts with the brilliant write-up. The rhythmic flow of his creations has garnered a huge number of listeners from all around the world. He is an independent artist who likes to make music on his own. He creates, records, and produces the tracks on his own. His unique presentation has grabbed the attention of all the listeners.

Hailing from Tacoma, Washington, this artist has established himself in the industry by showcasing his talent. His flawless deliverance has assisted him a lot to accumulate ears. At the very beginning of his career, he experienced a lot of difficulties to present his work to the listeners. It also came to know that he has to sell his first two albums on the street to reach out to audiences. Now LazerBeam is a renowned artist in the industry. He has contributed a lot to the hip-hop music industry. Some of his brilliant soundscapes are 'The Cold Survivor', 'Gift', 'Volition', and 'The Wake up Call'. All these songs are available on music streaming platforms like YouTube and Apple Music. Therefore, follow him on these music streaming sites to listen to his creations and also to get more updates on his projects.

Media Contact

Struggle City Publishing

lazerbeam124@gmail.com

Source : LazerBeam The Legendary Cold Survivor

See on IssueWire