New York City, New York May 2, 2023 (IssueWire.com) - Dr. Williams is a board-certified emergency physician working within the Emergency Department at Parrish Medical Center.

Parrish Medical Center is a public, not-for-profit, 210-bed acute care hospital in Titusville, Florida, within sight of the launch towers of Kennedy Space Center. Its Emergency Department is honored to treat more than 40,000 patients per year.

In June of 2008, Dr. Williams graduated with his Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine degree from the Philadelphia College of Osteopathic Medicine. He then went on to perform his internship and residency in emergency medicine at UPMC Memorial in 2009 and 2012, respectively.

Dedicated to clinical excellence, the doctor is board-certified in emergency medicine by the American Osteopathic Board of Emergency Medicine (AOBEM). The AOBEM is an organization that provides board certification to qualified Doctors of Osteopathic Medicine who specialize in the medical and surgical treatment of acutely ill patients with advanced cardiac life support, trauma, and the management of other life-threatening medical issues (emergency physicians).

Emergency medicine, also known as accident and emergency medicine, is the medical specialty concerned with the care of illnesses or injuries requiring immediate medical attention. An emergency physician is a physician who works in an emergency department to care for acutely ill or injured patients. They care for unscheduled and undifferentiated patients of all ages.
