Get to know Urologist Dr. Michael W. Sourial, who serves patients in Columbus, Ohio.

New York City, New York May 23, 2023 (Issuewire.com) - A devoted urologist, Dr. Sourial is affiliated with The OSU Wexner Medical Center in Columbus, Ohio. With expertise in procedures such as lithotripsy, laser calculi, nephrostomy, and percutaneous techniques, he provides comprehensive care to patients suffering from urinary calculi, ureteral calculi, urinary bladder calculi, nephrolithiasis, and kidney calculi.

Pertaining to his educational pursuits, he attended the Laval University School of Medicine in Canada, earning his medical degree in 2011. Following his medical education, he pursued further training at Montreal General Hospital, completing a residency in urology in 2016. To enhance his expertise and broaden his knowledge in the field of urology, he completed a fellowship at the Ohio State University Wexner Medical Center in 2018.

Subsequent to his education, the doctor attained board certification in urology through the American Board of Urology (ABU). The mission of the ABU is to act for the benefit of the public by establishing and maintaining standards of certification for urologists, working with certified urologists to achieve lifelong learning to insure the delivery of high quality, safe and ethical urologic care.

Urology, also known as genitourinary surgery, is the branch of medicine that focuses on surgical and medical diseases of the male and female urinary-tract system and the male reproductive organs. Urologists specialize in diseases of the urinary tract and the male reproductive system. Patients may be referred to a urologist if their physician suspects they may need treatment for a condition relating to the bladder, prostate, urethra, ureters, kidneys, and adrenal glands.
