

Rayna Tours' founder transitions CEO role to propel the company's expansion and growth plans.

The company announces the appointment of new CEO to assume its strategic initiatives.

Deira, Dubai May 2, 2023 (Issuewire.com) - Rayna Tours and Travels, one of the UAE's leading destination management companies, announced a significant leadership transition as its founder and current CEO, Manoj Tulsani, stepped aside from this responsibility to focus on driving the company's overall performance, technological development, and expansion initiatives. Mr. Senthil Velu will fill this title as the company's CEO, effective May 1, 2023.

Manoj Tulsani has played a pivotal role in growing and cementing Rayna Tours and Travels' position as an inevitable industry player. With Manoj at the helm of Rayna Group, the company has achieved remarkable growth, initiated breakthrough innovations, and established itself as a market leader. Thanks to his distinct entrepreneurial vision and spirit, he has been instrumental in laying an unwavering foundation for the company's ongoing success.

By leveraging his in-depth understanding and incredible experience of the industry landscape, Manoj will continue to spearhead the company's technological advancements and intensify its market presence to establish Rayna Tours as a globally recognized travel giant.

Speaking of Mr. Senthil Velu, is an industry veteran recognized for his exceptional leadership skills and exemplary track record of driving growth in related organizations. He is expected to bring a fresh perspective and apply his unparalleled experience to taking Rayna Tours and Travels to new heights.

Commenting on the leadership shift, Manoj expressed his enthusiasm: "We are thrilled to welcome Senthil to the Rayna family. His vast experience in the industry will be critical in driving our growth strategy, and his leadership skills will be invaluable in achieving our ambitions to take brand Rayna Tourism to the next level."

Senthil, too, shared his excitement about joining Rayna Tours, as he said, "I am delighted to join Rayna Tourism and look forward to working with the team to take the company to new heights. Rayna Tourism has established itself as a leading player in the Middle East travel market, and I am excited to be part of its growth journey."

Yasser Noman, Rayna Group's chairman, also stated his confidence in the new CEO's capability and competence, "Senthil's addition to the company is an important milestone; with him onboard, the company is fully equipped and ready to pursue rigorously its growth strategy and to implement its proven successful model to many other destinations across the globe."

With this transition in leadership, Rayna Tours and Travels is all set for a new era of market outreach, technological innovation, and growth. The company spokesperson further stated that it will remain steadfast in its dedication to delivering leading-edge travel solutions while meeting and exceeding customer expectations.
