American Folk Rock Artist, Taylor Hernly, has been Nominated for Rising Star of the Year. Artist of the Year/MultiGenre. Let’s not forget about his debut (LP) “Sidewalk Preacher” nominated for Album of the Year.

Taylor Hernly was born in Indianapolis and raised in Mooresville, Indiana, where he started playing the drums in 5th grade, Taylor took an interest in music and expanded his craft with songwriting when he turned 18.

Since then Taylor Hernly has become the biggest up-and-coming Name in the independent music scene, and deservedly so after his nominations for the Josie Awards. On May 4th of this year, Taylor was left speechless when he received several text messages from friends and family members celebrating the news that he had been nominated for several awards from the 2023 Josie Awards, an event that recognizes excellence from the independent music industry.

For Taylor, this nomination is not only a great honor, but also something that he could have never imagined when he began his journey as an artist. Starting off as a solo act, Taylor has since established a full band and released a solid debut album that has earned him a number of passionate and loyal fans.

Taylor's Entertainment Attorney Bryan Kroes saw something very special in Taylor Hernly's music, and the two negotiated a deal with Perry Music Group, which represents Artists all around the globe. Not to mention Perry Music Group has its own success stories as they have had several number-one hits from there publishing companies cut by Artist like (Tim McGraw) "Not A Moment Too Soon", (Lorrie Morgan), "What Part Of No Don't You Understand ", (The Backstreet Boys) "Anywhere For You", (Toby Keith) "A Woman's Touch" just to name a few. Needless to say, Taylor Hernly and his music are in good hands after inking a major digital distribution deal with Perry Music Group back in 2021. Perry Music Group is an imprint of The Orchard, which is a subsidiary of Sony Music, making Taylor Hernly's "Sidewalk Preacher" (LP) available on all of your favorite streaming apps. like Itunes, Spotify, Deezer, and Youtube.

With all the amazing things happening in Taylor's career, it'll be interesting to see where it takes him. His recognition from the Josie Awards serves as validation of all of the hard work that he has put into his performances, and although he still considers himself "the underdog of the underdogs", it is always inspiring to see an underdog reach their goals and succeed.
