Passionate about real estate, Bill strives to provide the best possible service to his clients.

New York City, New York May 8, 2023 (Issuewire.com) - With over 20 years of New York City relocation experience, Bill is the President of William J Farmer Real Estate, which he founded in 2013.

As a trusted expert to relocation companies, corporations and clients, he and his team have completed hundreds of home searches for executives and expats. Bill is focused on supporting his agents and helping them develop their business and supporting those seeking a 'home' by providing both in-person and information via social media outlets, such as YouTube and Instagram.

Bringing listings to the fray, Bill is the knowledge base for all things related to Manhattan real estate. His curated team of agents share his vision for providing a seamless buying, renting, and selling experience for New York's busiest people. His clients have worked with him consistently for almost two decades, praising his honesty and integrity for their loyalty. Brokers and landlords alike have come to appreciate his no-nonsense approach and now help quickly facilitate the needs of William J. Farmer's clients.

With a major in Economics from Queens College in 1999, Bill is a member of the Real Estate Board of New York (REBNY). He enjoys discovering great finds for his clients and helping those especially unfamiliar with New York and the city.

With a long-standing reputation for providing excellent service and advice to his clients, Bill is committed to helping them find the perfect home for their needs. He is dedicated to helping them make informed decisions and is always available to answer any questions they may have.

Attributing his success to hard work, grit, perseverance, and treating every client like family, Bill has been instrumental in helping many people find their dream homes.

Outside of work, his hobbies include basketball and P90X workout.
