

Aunt Dottie's Place Provides the Best Assisted Living Experience for Your Loved Ones

A reliable caregiving service that makes your life stress-free

Roseville, California Jun 24, 2023 (IssueWire.com) - Aunt Dottie's Place, a non-medical Residential Care Facility for the Elderly, is pleased to announce that they are providing a worry-free home for your loved ones. With a comfortable environment and warm staff, they create a personal living experience for their residents. They are licensed to exclusively care for a maximum of six residents that are treated like family with personal care, assistance, and support. Their philosophy is to treat everyone with compassion, respect, and dignity, allow residents as much independence as possible, and treat all residents as family members. Their home is the right size where residents feel comfortable and a part of a group, creating a comfortable environment providing socialization and fun.

Working under the supervision of Abraham Teweldebrhan, Aunt Dottie's Place is committed to providing the finest assisted living experience possible for its residents. The experienced staff provides care with kindness and warmth, creating a safe and tranquil place that residents can call home. Their caregivers are committed to providing a personalized level of quality care services. They understand that each resident has different needs, and their caregivers and support staff emphasize relationships and communication. It is privately owned, and its management team is dedicated and focused on the operation of the facility, providing continuous instructions to assist caregivers in effectively caring for residents. You can have peace of mind knowing that your loved one is well taken care of at this place.

Aunt Dottie's Place provides assistance, personalized care, and comfort for elderly residents in a home environment. Their experienced caregivers provide services to seniors not able to live on their own and are credentialed to meet the needs of their loved ones. Meal preparation, housekeeping and laundry services, furniture and basic supplies, medication management, and personal care are all included in one cost-effective rate. With a comfortable floor plan and an outdoor patio that encourages movement, this place provides a soothing environment for its residents. It is located in a clean and quiet neighborhood, within easy reach of visitors. They are determined to provide the finest board and care home in the community.

You can contact a rep at Aunt Dottie's Place to schedule a private tour of their Assisted Living home and to discover the home amenities, meet the caregivers and get all of your questions answered. They are sure that your beloved would love to stay here to have an amazing experience of life with full dignity and satisfaction.

Media Contact

Abraham Teweldebrhan

care@auntdottiesplace.com

+1 510-689-6059

224 Sagemoor Ct, Roseville, CA, 95678

Source : Aunt Dottie's Place

See on IssueWire