Specializing in residential properties, Brandi initiates conversations with potential clients in order to obtain business; collaborates and builds relationships with a team of agents, vendors, contractors, etc. to navigate the sales process; counsels clients to determine the best areas, and price points, and homes to fit their needs; serves as a resource to customers and clients before, during, and after the sale; foresees potential issues and solves problems that threaten a successful contract execution; ensures all deadlines are met to protect her clients' assets; creates and distributes promotional and marketing materials to attract and retain clients; develops and fosters referral networks; guides clients through the real estate purchase and selling processes; and prepares documents such as representation contracts, purchase agreements, and closing statements.

A small-town girl, Brandi grew up in a tiny, rural Florida community. She moved to central Florida to attend Stetson University, and after graduating with a degree in marketing, she moved across the country...thrice!

During her travels, she realized how important "home" was. That is why, once she moved back to Central Florida, she decided to make her career in real estate.
