Edgar A. Ralff III

Dr. Ralff III (Dr. R), graduated with his dental degree from Maurice H. Kornberg School of Dentistry at Temple University in 2017 and has been practicing alongside his father since graduation. He completed an implant fellowship through the New York University College of Dentistry in 2018.

Dentistry, also known as Dental and Oral Medicine, is a branch of medicine that consists of the study, diagnosis, prevention, and treatment of diseases, disorders, and conditions of the oral cavity. Dentists diagnose and treat dental issues and help patients develop better oral hygiene regimens. They clean teeth, correct bite issues, perform surgeries, create beautiful smiles, and perform other duties to ensure that the teeth and mouth are healthy.
