

Edward Mena's New Release: A powerful rendition of "Unchained Melody"

The Award-Winning Venezuelan American vocalist brings new life to this timeless classic.

New York City, New York Jun 25, 2023 (Issuewire.com) - Singer Edward Mena is a native of Venezuela who was raised in the United States where he started his professional artistic career at a very young age. Known for his distinctive voice and unique style, on his latest release Mena presents a new version of the famous classic "Unchained Melody", originally recorded by The Righteous Brothers, performed with raw passion and unparalleled emotion showcasing his great vocal range, control and impressive technical abilities, accompanied by a beautiful orchestral arrangement with a touch of a contemporary pop sound. Mena makes this song his own with a truly breathtaking interpretation that will touch the very depths of your soul.

This record was produced in collaboration with GRAMMY and Latin GRAMMY nominee Hildemaro Álvarez, a respected Venezuelan producer and arranger in Miami, and mastered in London by Nick Burchall, acclaimed audio engineer who has worked on albums for Ed Sheeran, Tom Jones, Elton John and Hollywood Movie Soundtracks such as Jurassic World. Musicians from around the world were invited to participate in this project, which is rapidly introducing Mena to a new English speaking audience in North America and Europe.

Through his career, Edward Mena has performed in many cities around the United States and has shared the stage with a constellation of Hispanic musical stars, like Paloma San Basilio, Yuri, Guadalupe Pineda, Tania Libertad, and Aída Cuevas, just to name a few. Also, The City of Miami honored him with a proclamation, while Broward County in Florida presented him with a Certificate of Appreciation. Mena was also recently appointed as the Cultural Ambassador of the International Association of Hispanic Poets and Writers (AIPEH). In 2019, he presented his debut EP “Emociones: Mi Canto Al Idoló”, released in the Latin market, where he worked with legendary producer Humberto Gatica, whose credits include Céline Dion, Andrea Bocelli, Barbra Streisand, Michael Buble, and Josh Groban, among others, which earned him a Global Music Award as “Best Male Vocalist” in Los Angeles.

This new single is now available on every streaming platform and you can also watch the Official Studio Video in YouTube. Highly recommended. Mena is a rising star that is here to stay.
