

Girl Power Talk Features Sharon Hayut, Senior Managing Director of Magnus Financial Group

New York City, New York Jun 17, 2023 (Issuewire.com) - Girl Power Talk is delighted to announce an exclusive interview with Sharon Hayut, CFP®, CDFA®, Senior Managing Director of Magnus Financial Group. In the interview, Sharon displays her compassionate nature and unwavering commitment to empowering her clients through financial education. In recognition of her industry leadership, she was recognized on Forbes' prestigious Best-In-State Wealth Advisors list in 2022.

Sharon embarked on her journey in the financial sector at a young age and encountered her fair share of challenges. However, her relentless determination has propelled her to new heights. Reflecting on her own experiences, Sharon emphasizes the crucial role of mentorship and staying true to her values in overcoming obstacles. She fondly recalls the invaluable support she received early in her career from a more senior female investment banker. In appreciation, she is committed to paying it forward by fostering the next generation of women in investment management.

In the interview, Sharon shares how her journey as a mother impacts her perspective on work-life balance. She comments on the unique struggles faced by working mothers. Recognizing the significance of being present for her children, she cherishes precious time with her family.

Sharon Hayut's achievements and life story embody the spirit of persistence and dedication. Her resilience in overcoming challenges and living a purposeful life is an inspiration for our global community.

Read the full interview here.

Media Contact

Nitya Gupta, Girl Power Talk

nitya.gupta@girlpowertalk.com

Source : Girl Power Talk

See on IssueWire