

Haley Epps, Recognized by BestAgents.us as a 2023 Top Agent

An incredibly hard worker, Haley is driven to accomplish so much each day primarily by her desire to help the people in her community.

New York City, New York Jun 9, 2023 (IssueWire.com) - Haley is a highly accomplished real estate agent & Certified Residential Specialist. She is the Owner of The Haley Epps Team at Compass Realty Group - they are based in Leawood, but serve the entire Kansas City Metro area.

Proudly providing world-class service and unparalleled dedication to each and every one of her clients, Haley has worked with hundreds of buyers and sellers, as well as developers and business owners. Her goal is to always help her clients in all areas of real estate with the highest level of attention, satisfaction, and integrity.

From the very beginning with either buyers or sellers, Haley is steps ahead of the competition. For buyers, she and her team have access to the best comp analysis and information in the industry. For sellers, they offer complimentary staging assistance and superior photography to show their clients' homes in the very best light. Their listings are regularly featured on all social media platforms and are delivered to the inboxes of all agents in Kansas City.

Advanced real estate technology helps them to match their buyers with great homes and sellers with great pre-qualified buyers. All of this leads to happy buyers and increased exposure, more showings, and quicker sales for their sellers.

Growing up in Kansas City, except for being away for four years of college, Haley has lived in Kansas City her whole life. Her college degree was in Political Science/International Relations from Eckerd College in St. Petersburg, Florida.

After college, she came back home to Kansas City and began working for a state representative, Jan Meyers. She also worked for the Builders Association of Kansas City as the Head of their PR department.

Coming from a real estate family, Haley's mother was a realtor and her grandparents were before her, so she has been surrounded by the sales transactions of homes for most of her life. She got her start working in commercial real estate with her mother at their own brokerage, The Spalitto Company, until she started focusing on residential properties.

Now leading The Haley Epps Team at Compass, one of Haley's primary goals as a realtor is to build lasting relationships with each of her clients in order to guide them through the challenging process of homeownership. She provides personalized, hands-on service, provides insight informed by decades in the industry, and stays involved in clients' lives long after the transaction is completed.

Going above and beyond for her clients to get them where they want to be as far as their real estate needs are concerned, Haley becomes friends with many of the people she works with. Because of these traits and more, she gets 95% of her business from repeats and referrals.

In order to constantly expand her sphere and stay in touch with her constituency, Haley maintains a consistent presence online and within her community. She uses the MLS and social media to market her listings as well as ads in lifestyle magazines, and communicates with past clients over social media and by phone. Her ability to stay on people's radar has enabled her sphere and her business to grow, and her production numbers reflect that.

A creative problem solver, Haley feels genuine compassion for her clients. That opportunity to meet and help so many people is what inspires the quality and intensiveness of her client service, enabling her to become one of the most successful real estate agents in the business.

Her impressive professional accolades include the 5 STAR Awards (2019, 2021, and 2022) and the Real Producers in Kansas City Award (2021 and 2022). She has also been named a Top Agent in 2020, 2021, and 2022; is a member of both the Kansas City Regional Association of Realtors and the Compass Sports and Entertainment Division; and is on the Board of SDA.

In her free time, Haley loves spending time with her husband and her daughters. She enjoys hiking, biking, and going on vacations to the beach in Florida.

A huge proponent of community engagement, she personally raises money for local organizations such as the Gold Key Project, Fellowship of Christian Athletes, and her local church, the Legacy Christian Church. Haley and her team also hold clothing drives for Mission South Side, a local ministry that provides for the homeless.

Likewise, Haley works with the Unconventional Women's Business Network, a non-profit faith-at-work ministry designed to foster good business practices within the community.
