Cryptocurrency Markets Are Open Year Round

While traditional financial markets, such as stock and bond markets, are usually open only during specific hours on weekdays, the cryptocurrency market is a market that is open 24 hours a day, 24/7, with continuous trading throughout the year. As a result, when external factors or events that may affect market price fluctuations occur, they tend to react quickly to price changes, rather than waiting until after the market opens, as is the case in traditional financial markets. That is why cryptocurrency exchanges usually need to be open 24/7 all the time to facilitate users to take advantage of the timing to buy and sell.
