

New Website, MTGA Central, Offers Free Arena Codes, Tips, and More for Magic: The Gathering Players

Johnson City, New York Jun 4, 2023 (Issuewire.com) - Magic: The Gathering (MTG) fans and players now have a new website to turn to for information, resources, and free Arena codes. MTGA Central, launched by Ray McNally, a veteran MTG player, aims to provide a one-stop-shop for all things MTG Arena and Magic: The Gathering.

"This website has something for all MTG fans and players, whether you're a novice or experienced player," says Ray McNally, the brain behind MTGA Central. "I've been playing Magic: The Gathering since the late 90's, and I've learned a lot along the way. Now I want to share that knowledge with the community."

MTGA Central offers a variety of resources, including tips, articles on game strategy, deck archetypes, and much more. But perhaps the biggest draw of the site is the free Arena codes that McNally is giving away. These codes can be redeemed in MTG Arena, allowing players to unlock various in-game rewards.

"I know how much time and effort it takes to build a strong MTG Arena collection," McNally said. "That's why I want to give something back to the community. These Arena codes will help players get a jumpstart on their collection, or unlock some of the harder-to-get cards."

Besides offering free Arena codes, McNally hopes to create a community around MTGA Central. He plans to host giveaways and tournaments and foster a place for players to connect with each other. The site already has a Discord server, where members can chat, ask and answer questions, and get to know each other.

"I want MTGA Central to be a resource and community for all MTG Arena players," McNally says. "I've been fortunate enough to have the support of an amazing community over the years, and I hope MTGA Central can bring some of that same spirit to others."

With a sleek, easy-to-navigate design, MTGA Central is poised to become one of the go-to websites for MTG Arena players around the world. To check out the site and get your free Arena codes, go to <https://www.MTGACentral.com>.
