

Priority One Logistics LLC Becomes Official Sponsor of Cordero Martial Arts

Priority One Logistics LLC, a leading logistics company, is pleased to announce its official sponsorship of Cordero Martial Arts

Fremont, California Jun 29, 2023 (Issuewire.com) - Priority One Logistics LLC, a leading logistics company, is pleased to announce its official sponsorship of Cordero Martial Arts, a renowned martial arts academy. This partnership brings together two organizations committed to excellence, community support, and the pursuit of success.

Established in 2007, Cordero Martial Arts was originally known as The Fightshop/Westpoint MMA. Founded by the Cordero family, including Lawrence Sr. and his sons Lawrence Jr. and Josh, the academy boasts a combined experience of over 20 years. In the summer of 2017, the academy underwent a transformation and became Cordero Martial Arts, currently led by Head black belt Instructor Josh Cordero alongside black belts Lawrence Sr. and Lawrence Jr.

Cordero Martial Arts offer a comprehensive range of classes, with a primary focus on traditional Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu. In addition to Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu, the academy provides training in no gi, Kickboxing, Wrestling, and Judo, catering to both adults and children. The academy's dedication to teaching valuable skills, promoting physical fitness, and fostering discipline has garnered widespread recognition within the martial arts community.

Priority One Logistics recognizes the commitment and achievements of Cordero Martial Arts and is delighted to join forces with the academy as an official sponsor. Through this partnership, Priority One Logistics will actively support Josh Cordero and his team as they participate in various tournaments, offering financial assistance, resources, and logistics support to enhance their performance.

The collaboration between Priority One Logistics and Cordero Martial Arts has already yielded impressive results. Cordero Martial Arts' talented athletes have consistently demonstrated their prowess by securing gold and silver medals in recent tournaments. The sponsorship by Priority One Logistics will further empower the academy's athletes, enabling them to reach new heights and showcase their skills on a broader platform.

Commenting on the sponsorship, Mitch Montoya, Owner, of Priority One Logistics, expressed enthusiasm for the partnership, saying, "We are thrilled to support Cordero Martial Arts in their pursuit of excellence. Their dedication to martial arts training and their commitment to their students align perfectly with our values at Priority One Logistics. We look forward to witnessing their continued success and contributing to their growth as an official sponsor."

The collaboration between Priority One Logistics and Cordero Martial Arts exemplifies the synergy between sports and corporate entities, showcasing the power of community support and shared goals. Together, they aim to inspire and empower individuals, both within the martial arts community and beyond.
