Get to know Oncologist Dr. Ryan E. Hall, who serves patients throughout the State of Arkansas.

New York City, New York Jun 2, 2023 (Issuewire.com) - A dual board-certified medical oncologist,

Dr. Hall provides expert medical oncology to patients across the state of Arkansas.

Working with the Central Arkansas Radiation Therapy Institute, he sees and treats cancer patients at CARTI Cancer Center in Little Rock, Conway, Stuttgart, and in Pine Bluff.

Since 1976, CARTI has delivered the world's most advanced forms of cancer care in a compassionate, patient-centered environment. The team of expert providers treat all types of adult cancer and blood disorders with a full spectrum of treatment modalities, including surgery, chemotherapy and radiation therapy, as well as diagnostic radiology. Their mission is to make trusted cancer care accessible for every patient they serve through compassion, innovation, and purpose.

A Magna Cum Laude graduate of the University of Arkansas with a Bachelor of Science degree in Chemistry, Dr. Hall received his medical degree from the UAMS College of Medicine. He then went on to perform his internship and residency in internal medicine at the University of Kentucky, where he served as chief resident.

Furthering his training, he completed a fellowship in hematology/oncology at Wake Forest Baptist Medical Center in Winston-Salem, North Carolina, after which he joined the medical staff at CARTI.

Dedicated to clinical excellence, the doctor is board-certified in both internal medicine and medical oncology by the American Board of Internal Medicine (ABIM). The ABIM is a physician-led, non-profit, independent evaluation organization driven by doctors who want to achieve higher standards for better care in a rapidly changing world.

In collaboration with Baptist Health, Dr. Hall is affiliated with Baptist Health Extended Care Hospital, Baptist Health Medical Center-Conway, Baptist Health Medical Center-Little Rock, Baptist Health Medical Center-North Little Rock, Baptist Health Medical Center-Stuttgart, and Baptist Health Rehabilitation Institute-Little Rock.

Continuously advancing his efforts, he is an active member of the American Society for Clinical Oncology, the American Society of Hematology, and the American College of Physicians.

Oncology is a branch of medicine that deals with the prevention, diagnosis, and treatment of cancer. A medical professional who practices oncology is an oncologist. They have special training in diagnosing and treating cancer in adults using chemotherapy, hormonal therapy, biological therapy, and targeted therapy.
