He was born in the city of Rasht, located on the north of Iran, in 1990. born in an music lover family, he showed a tremendous enthusiasm and intelligent toward music. Samo is a successful, talented Dj and producer who is pursuing his dreams and achieving his goals with his latest style.

His journey started at a very young age, followed by open his first ever studio at the age of 17 and it was the time that he felt confident of his abilities as his set became an instant hit in the country that he used to live in as well as in Asian countries. Due to the lack of career opportunities in his country, Samo compelled moving in to Dubai, where his career took off and he had the chance to be introduced to famous DJs and producers. He now lives in Erbil

SaMo, this creative and tasteful musician and DJ created a new style of music for the first time in the world by combining two styles. He created a new style called 'TECHRAP' by combining techno and rap styles and a new evolution in the electronic music. he always says that i tried all my life to enjoy music convey this deep sense,given fom music,to all people across the world.It was made possible when i could combine these two popular styles with each other.so that people can enjoy them and I am grateful having been succeeded in.

Many famous DJs in the world utilise this style and people enjoy listening to it.
