

Scopism Community Launch will Revolutionise the Future of SIAM

North Yorkshire, United Kingdom Jun 29, 2023 (Issuewire.com) - Scopism, the leading authority in Service Integration and Management (SIAM), is thrilled to announce the official launch of the Scopism SIAM Community. Supported by our esteemed community partners, and our exclusive education partner, EXIN, the Scopism SIAM Community will offer an unprecedented opportunity for professionals to connect, learn, and grow within a trusted and knowledgeable network.

Talking about the community, Claire Agutter from Scopism said:

"The Scopism SIAM Community invites individuals and organizations from various backgrounds, including practitioners, customer organizations, service providers, consultants, and software vendors, to join a thriving community that fosters collaboration, discussion, and continuous learning. This inclusive platform facilitates connections between those seeking support and seasoned experts, enabling members to exchange valuable insights, experiences, and industry best practices."

By joining the Scopism SIAM Community, individuals at any stage of their career, including students and academic institutions, gain access to a wealth of exclusive content and learning opportunities.

Membership is free and includes downloadable resources such as the SIAM Foundation & Professional Body of Knowledge (BoKs), as well as regular updates encompassing case studies, analyses, and more.

Talking about the importance of the Scopism SIAM Community, Mohan from Community Sponsor HCL Software said, "In the realm of open source, it is imperative to cultivate a culture of sharing and establish a community of individuals committed to learning and growing together. Scopism's SIAM Community resonates with HCL SIAM's vision, inspiring us to partner in creating a learning environment that is transparent and trustworthy" Mohan Kewalramani is Vice President and Practice Head, Service Integration & Management (SIAM), HCL Software.

To ensure the smooth operation and growth of the community, Scopism has appointed a dedicated full-time Community Manager, Stephanie Ward, who will work closely with community partners and members to support global markets and drive the evolution of SIAM.

Stephanie said " The Scopism SIAM Community will offer a comprehensive range of services, including whitepapers, webinars, discussions, and upcoming events like the highly anticipated annual SIAM conference, Service North. Communities are invaluable and perfect for any type of person. At Scopism SIAM, we encourage diversity and inclusion to inspire growth and innovation. Whether you are seeking guidance or have the expertise to share, there is a place for everyone in our community. Join us and experience the power of collaboration as we shape the future of SIAM together!"
