

UK's leading supplier diversity organisation, MSDUK, appoints Matt Glass as the new board chair

Matt Glass has been appointed as new board chair of UK's leading supplier diversity organisation, MSDUK.

London, United Kingdom Jun 25, 2023 (Issuewire.com) - UK's leading supplier diversity organisation, MSDUK, appoints Matt Glass as the new board chair

Matt Glass has been appointed as new board chair of UK's leading supplier diversity organisation, MSDUK.

In the role, Matt will lead MSDUK's board as they continue to support a thriving network of corporates and ethnic minority businesses (EMBs) to improve supplier diversity for individuals, communities, and businesses across the UK and Europe.

Matt leads European Property Development and Facilities at Enterprise Holdings and joined the MSDUK board six years ago, consistently striving to improve supply chain diversity.

Enterprise joined MSDUK in 2004 as one of the organisation's founding members. As well as completing the Benchmarking Survey in 2021 and 2022, Enterprise has worked with seven of MSDUK's certified suppliers in 2022.

Speaking about the appointment, Mayank Shah, Founder and CEO of MSDUK said:

"Matt Glass brings notable expertise and experience to MSDUK, and I am extremely pleased he is taking up the position as board chair for MSDUK. MSDUK plays a vital role in supplier diversity across the United Kingdom and Europe, and I'm proud of the ongoing support we continue to receive."

Matt Glass, Head of European Property Development and Facilities at Enterprise, says: "Being appointed Chair of MSDUK is an exciting opportunity to support the continued efforts to create positive change for supplier diversity. An inclusive and diverse supply chain can drive economic impact and empowerment in under-represented communities and play an integral role in sustaining successful operations."

"At Enterprise, we are committed to working with suppliers that reflect the communities we operate in and spend more than £3 billion annually with diverse businesses worldwide. Working with a broad network of partners and suppliers helps us to achieve our vision to be the world's best and most trusted mobility provider."

"I'm thrilled to lead the MSDUK board and work with fellow businesses to support the mission to create inclusive and diverse supply chains across the UK. I'm also delighted to welcome Sara Ahmad from Bristol Myers Squibb as deputy chair of the MSDUK Board."

To find out more information about MSDUK's vision you can visit <https://www.msduk.org.uk/>

Media Contact

MSDUK

claire@PRIMEPR.CO.UK

Source : MSDUK

See on IssueWire