

Vince Smith Announces New Album "Breaking All The Rules" Featuring Stellar Singles and Unique Guitar Style

New Single "Dreaming Away" available to stream everywhere

Livonia, Michigan Jun 25, 2023 (Issuewire.com) - Acclaimed singer-songwriter Vince Smith is back with his highly anticipated new album, "Breaking All The Rules." Set to release in late August of 2023, this album promises to captivate audiences with its heartfelt melodies, introspective lyrics, and Smith's distinctive guitar style.

Following the success of his previous album "Undeniable" in November 2021, which featured the hit single "Balance The Scales" with over 50,000 streams on Spotify, Vince Smith has continued to push musical boundaries with his upcoming release. "Breaking All The Rules" showcases Smith's evolution as an artist and his commitment to creating authentic and emotionally charged music.

The album features three compelling singles, each with its own unique flavor. The first single, "Dreaming Away," is a collaboration with pianist Marq Andrew Speck and will be released on June 22nd, 2023. With Smith's soulful vocals and Speck's masterful piano skills, "Dreaming Away" takes listeners on a mesmerizing musical journey.

In July 2023, Vince Smith will release two additional singles from the album: "Skeletons" and "Haven." These tracks promise to showcase Smith's songwriting prowess and his ability to connect with listeners on a profound level.

Hailing from the suburbs of Detroit, Michigan, Vince Smith has established himself as a force to be reckoned with. Known for playing a right-handed guitar upside down due to his being left-handed, Smith's unconventional approach adds an extra layer of artistry to his performances.

"Breaking All The Rules" represents a significant milestone in Vince's musical journey, showcasing his growth as an artist and his commitment to pushing boundaries. Fans and music lovers alike can anticipate an album that defies expectations and resonates with you.
