

Andrew Castillon, Recognized by BestAgents.us as a 2023 Top Agent

Known for his competitive nature and client-centric approach, Andrew Castillon prioritizes the needs and goals of his clients above all else.

New York City, New York Jul 13, 2023 (Issuewire.com) - Andrew is an exceptional Real Estate Agent and the Founder of The Lincoln Advisory Group at Compass. His specialization lies in residential real estate, where he excels in guiding clients through the complex process of buying or selling their homes.

With a wealth of knowledge and expertise in the fast-paced Chicago market and its surrounding suburbs, he is highly accomplished in his field. He holds a Bachelor's degree in Pre-Medicine & Business Management from Michigan State University, which has provided him with a solid foundation in analytical thinking and effective communication.

Drawing from his experience in school and corporate sales, Andrew possesses a disciplined work ethic that allows him to provide exceptional service to his clients. One of his key strengths is his commitment to differentiation. He strives to offer a unique and personalized experience to each client, setting himself apart from others in the industry.

On a professional level, he is affiliated with the Chicago Association of Realtors and the National Association of Realtors, establishing himself as a trusted professional in the industry.

Taking great pleasure in educating his clients about the entire real estate process, he ensures transparency and clear communication every step of the way. By alleviating the stress often associated with real estate transactions, he aims to provide his clients with an unparalleled experience. His dedication to transparency and communication fosters trust and confidence in his clients, making their real estate journey smoother and more rewarding.

In his free time, Andrew enjoys working out, fine dining, traveling, and spending time with his family. He attributes his success to the unwavering support and love of his family, who have played a crucial role in shaping his work ethic and determination.
