

Danielle Baker, Recognized by BestAgents.us as a 2023 Top Agent

Providing only the best and most timely information to clients, Danielle keeps them informed throughout the entire buying / selling process.

working with Keller Williams Hollywood Hills in Los Angeles, California. Her goal is to assist buyers and sellers throughout their transactions, representing their best interests from negotiations to contract execution.

Keller Williams Hollywood Hills consists of a team of highly-seasoned real estate professionals dedicated to providing exceptional, personalized service for all of their clients. They take great pride in the relationships they build and always work relentlessly on the client's behalf to help them achieve their real estate goals.

Representing the best and brightest in the industry, the team of experts at Keller Williams Hollywood Hills is always striving to lead the field in research, innovation, and consumer education. Their philosophy is simple: clients come first.

After graduating with her Associate of Science degree in Music Production from the Los Angeles Film School, Danielle is an aspiring author and artist. She has had screenplays and poetry published.

Working in Los Angeles, she has been gaining experience with customer service, money handling, and organization, as well as computer skills in media, real estate, and the arts.

Among her many roles, Danielle is a life insurance specialist at the American Income Life Insurance Company, a part of Solar Energy Partners, as well as a dance teacher and choreographer with Heat Dance.

Her dream career would be teaching college-level psychology, developing literature for neurology, publishing Sci-Fi movies and best-selling novels throughout the world, and helping those who are looking to learn about it through art.

Striving to be as active in the community as much as she can, Danielle loves doing charity work. Since August 2019, she has been a counselor with the Boys & Girls Clubs of America

In her free time, she loves to read as well as work on her photography and administrative skills, which is where she excels.

In the future, Danielle hopes to become a novelist and/or comic book designer, and finish her degree studying aerospace technology and engineering.
