New York City, New York Jul 18, 2023 (Issuewire.com) - An experienced internist, Dr. Solomon Alhemovich values the doctor-patient relationship as a family bond rather than a mere business transaction. With a deep sense of care for each patient, she strives to provide attentive and personalized medical care, recognizing that every individual is unique and should be treated as such.

She is a MDVIP-affiliated internal medicine physician with understanding of preventive care.

At Chain of Lakes Primary Care, she specializes in providing medical treatment to adults, addressing both common and rare diseases. Her goal is to optimize her patients' health and if needed restore their health. She focuses her studies on prevention, longevity and concierge personalized care. As an internist, she can serve as a primary physician or collaborate as a consultant to other primary physicians, working closely with surgeons when necessary to ensure comprehensive care for her patients.

With a broad educational background, Dr. Solomon Alhemovich holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Chemical Engineering from the University of South Florida and a Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine degree from Kansas City University of Medicine and Biosciences: College of Osteopathic Medicine. She completed her internship and residency in internal medicine at the University of Connecticut, focusing on primary care.

Passionate about her profession, the doctor is board-certified by the American Board of Internal Medicine, which is an organization that provides board certification to qualified Doctors of Medicine (MD) who specialize in the prevention, diagnosis, and treatment of disease in adults (internists).

Among her other roles, Dr. Solomon Alhemovich is affiliated with hospitals throughout the Central Florida area. Her experience includes working as a hospitalist and nocturnist at Florida Hospital Celebration and as a primary care provider in the Orlando Health System across West Orange and Lake Counties.

Internal medicine is the medical specialty dealing with the prevention, diagnosis, and treatment of adult diseases. Physicians specializing in Internal Medicine are called Internists. They manage and prevent common and complex diseases by providing comprehensive care and promoting overall well-being.

Throughout her career, Dr. Solomon Alhemovich has been honored with prestigious scholarships and memberships in engineering and chemical engineering honors societies. She was also awarded the Mary Lou Butterworth, DO Scholarship by her Medical School. These accolades reflect her dedication to academic excellence and commitment to providing the highest quality care to her patients.
