

Dark Red Horror Film Fest Returns for Second Annual Event

Unleashing Chilling Cinema and Cultivating Filmmaker Community

Albuquerque, New Mexico Jul 18, 2023 (Issuewire.com) - Horror films have an undeniable place within film culture, captivating audiences with their dark, weird, and under-your-skin creepy stories. Recognizing the importance of celebrating this genre, Dark Red Horror Film Fest announces its highly anticipated second annual event, set to take place in Fall 2023. Created by filmmakers, for filmmakers, this festival is dedicated to fostering a dynamic community that celebrates both indie filmmaking and horror fandom.

Prepare to be captivated by an exceptional selection of spine-chilling short and feature horror films from New Mexico and beyond. From psychological thrillers to supernatural tales, the festival's program promises to push boundaries, challenge conventions, and evoke a wide range of emotions. Building upon the success of its inaugural edition, this year's event is set to provide an unforgettable experience for horror enthusiasts and filmmakers alike. In addition to the captivating film screenings.

Dark Red Horror Film Fest plans to offer a range of activities and events tailored to horror aficionados and filmmakers. Dark Red Horror Film Fest welcomes horror filmmakers from all backgrounds to submit their cinematic creations for consideration. The festival's commitment to inclusivity ensures that every unique voice in the genre has an opportunity to be heard and celebrated.

Join us in Fall 2023 for the second annual Dark Red Horror Film Fest as we embrace the eerie, the strange, and the spine-chilling, and celebrate the horror genre in all its mesmerizing glory.

Media Contact

Dark Red Horror Festival

darkredhorror@gmail.com

Source : Albuquerque Film and Media Incubator

See on IssueWire