

Embrace tropical life as a remote worker

Nomad Village Brazil is thrilled to announce the second chapter of its Remote Worker Retreat in November 2023, taking place in the idyllic Pipa, Brazil.

Rio Grande do Norte, Brazil Jul 12, 2023 (Issuewire.com) - Wake up early in the morning, dip into the pool or surf in the ocean, do some yoga, enjoy a wonderful breakfast, and start your day. This is how a typical remote worker's day starts in tropical Pipa, Brazil.

Nomad Village Brazil invites remote workers from the US, Canada, and Europe to escape the chilly winter of the northern hemisphere. Spend a few weeks working in the perfect tropical climate, connecting with like-minded individuals.

Experience co-living and co-working, surrounded by breathtaking tropical nature. Enjoy the perfect blend of work, leisure, and adventure. Unwind with yoga sessions or surf in the morning to enrich your creativity and productivity. Make lifelong memories during sunset DJ sessions, weekend excursions, and cultural activities.

The home base of Nomad Village Brazil is laid out in a beautiful setting around 3 swimming pools, surrounded by tropical plants and animals. The comfortable and large rooms and apartments are distributed over different bungalow-style buildings, making it the perfect retreat for digital nomads. Every morning, you get to enjoy a Brazilian breakfast with lots of tropical fruits and juices. At night you can go to one of the countless restaurants in Pipa.

Alyssa, shares her experience: "We did the nomad hub at Morada dos Ventos and it was such a lovely stay. I did not want to leave. There are so many places to relax, sit and work, and enjoy. The staff is so amazing and accommodating and the space is absolutely beautiful. [...] The wifi is [...] 150 - 250 Mbps and is steady and great for video calls."

ABOUT PIPA, BRAZIL

If you're a remote worker seeking a tropical getaway, Pipa is ideal. The former 'hippie village' in northeast Brazil offers a laid-back atmosphere away from city life. Pipa has become a popular destination for its peace and sun.

The international nomad community includes visitors from the US, Canada, Europe, Argentina, and of course Brazil. Enjoy the vibrant village scene with great dining and shopping options. Relax on stunning sand dunes and beaches, and for adventure seekers, there's surfing at "Praia de Madeiro" and kitesurfing at a nearby river mouth just 15 minutes away.

Pipa's nightlife is famous throughout the region and peaks on the weekends. Many Brazilians from Natal or Joao Pessoa visit the village for a long weekend, whether to escape from their routine or to enjoy a remote work holiday.

Timezone: UTC -3h

Climate: Subtropical with temperatures between 22-30°C

Location: Praia da Pipa (Tibau do Sul), Brazil. Airport: Natal.

More info: <https://nomadvillagebrazil.com/chapter-2>

Nomad Village Brazil

pr@nomadvillagebrazil.com

Source : Coara Group OU

See on IssueWire