

Kenneth Samuels, Recognized by BestAgents.us as a 2023 Top Agent

With his strong work ethic and effective communication skills, Kenneth Samuels is committed to providing top-notch customer service.

New York City, New York Jul 20, 2023 (Issuewire.com) - Kenneth is a devoted ADT Sales Representative based in Illinois, known for his unwavering dedication to providing top-notch security solutions for both residential and commercial properties. With a solid background in the security industry, he has established himself as a trusted professional in his field.

Academically, he embarked on his journey by pursuing higher education at Prince George College in 1972. While his initial focus was not on real estate sales, he discovered his true passion in the realm of security. Throughout his career, he has actively sought out opportunities to enhance his expertise, obtaining various certifications that have solidified his knowledge and skills.

One notable experience in his professional journey was when he applied for a position at a college of optometry but was unfortunately unsuccessful. However, instead of accepting defeat, Kenneth took legal action against the institution and emerged victorious.

It was during this period that his path crossed with a friend who worked at ADT and was expecting a child. Taking advantage of ADT's referral program, he joined the company in 2006, and he has been an integral part of their team ever since. This move proved to be a turning point in his career, as it allowed him to channel his passion for security into a role where he could make a tangible difference.

Born and raised in Chicago, Kenneth has always been deeply connected to his local community. His commitment to excellence is demonstrated through his consistent achievement of the Centurion Club annual quota for five consecutive years. This prestigious club is reserved for individuals who meet or exceed their sales targets, highlighting Kenneth's ability to consistently deliver outstanding results.

In addition to his professional accomplishments, he is a member of the Rewards Luxury Development program, which further underscores his commitment to providing exceptional customer service in the field of home security.

On a more personal note, Kenneth accredits his achievements to his effective communication skills, strong work ethic, and his dedication to helping clients understand the importance of home security. His ability to connect with people and convey the significance of a safe and secure living environment has made him a valued asset to ADT.
