

Leawo Software Launches July Online Sale with Up to 90% Off on CleverGet All-in-One 10 and Other Exciting Discounts

Recently, Leawo Software launched a July online sale, offering 90% off CleverGet All-in-One 10 for one-stop video download solution and other up to 70% discounts, such as All-in-One bundle, Ultimate Blu-ray Toolkit, etc.

Shenzhen, Guangdong Jul 2, 2023 (Issuewire.com) - July is here. Leawo Software, a leading multimedia software developer, has recently announced the launch of its highly anticipated July online sale. As part of this exclusive promotion, Leawo offers an extraordinary discount of up to 90% off on their popular CleverGet All-in-One 10 software, an innovative tool used to download videos from over 1000 websites. In addition, customers can also enjoy discounts of up to 70% off on various other software applications.

CleverGet All-in-One 10 is a comprehensive 24-in-1 online video download solution designed to give users unparalleled access to their favorite videos from a wide range of popular platforms. With the ability to download videos and live streams from platforms such as YouTube, Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, Apple TV+, Disney+, Netflix, HBO Max, Hulu, and more, CleverGet All-in-One 10 is an essential tool for any avid media consumer.

Previously priced at $2178.80, this remarkable software is now available at an unbeatable price of just $209.95 for a limited time. Customers who take advantage of this offer will also receive nine individual modules at a 50% discount, including Video Downloader, Amazon Downloader, Netflix Download, etc.

Downloading videos with CleverGet is very simple – input URL or search for target video with built-in browser, then choose download options and start to download. CleverGet supports batch downloading full episodes or multiple seasons at once. All downloaded videos can be up to 8K resolution and with 320 Kbps audio. With different formats available, CleverGet can save videos to MP4, MKV, WebM or other formats, and all metadata will be well persevered. What's more, this powerful software can remove ads from source videos automatically.

“Leawo Software is thrilled to bring this incredible online sale to our valued customers,” said CleverGet product manager David Brooks. “With substantial discounts on CleverGet All-in-One 10 and other powerful software applications, we are dedicated to providing our customers with the best multimedia tools available on the market. This promotion is a testament to our commitment to delivering exceptional value to our users.”

Moreover, to add even more value to this exciting promotion, all visitors to the Leawo website can get a complimentary Photo Enhancer as a freebie, by entering their name and email address in the promotion page. Additionally, customers can benefit from a generous sitewide coupon offering 30% off, which can be utilized across the entire Leawo Software range.
