

Markus Bixby is a new film to be released to streaming in Spring 2024.

The movie is currently in post-production.

San Diego, California Jul 28, 2023 (Issuewire.com) - Markus Bixby is a new movie by Andophin Films. Produced on a Bantam-Budget, this fully independent film features an excellent cast of up-and-coming talent. The feature-length movie is an entirely new story, loosely based on Siren's Ruse and Andophins self-published novels.

The main character, Markus Bixby, works on a tour boat company in Santa Catalina Island, and during the course of his job, he discovers something amazing. The movie is a light drama that turns into a fantasy. The imagery is grand and expansive, revealing the most from its humble resources. Filmed entirely in San Diego, California, the production created many support jobs for the local community.

This motion picture is written, directed, and produced by Cory Baxter. The main cameraperson in the production was Kenneth Jenkins.

The full cast of wonderful actors for this movie is included, with their names above each image. Markus Bixby will be promoted to streaming services in the Spring of 2024.
