Poole, Dorset Jul 27, 2023 (IssueWire.com) - Predict Addict, the leading free online prediction game platform, has launched its FA Premier League 2023/24 football prediction league. Football enthusiasts from around the world can now showcase their prediction skills and compete for the title of prediction champion.

The FA Premier League 2023/24 prediction league on Predict Addict invites users to predict scores between fixtures and earn points based on the accuracy of their predictions. Participants will put their football knowledge and intuition to the test as they strive to outsmart their competitors and climb the ranks. The ultimate objective is to accumulate the highest score and claim the prestigious title of prediction league winner.

The new season kicks off on 11th August 2023, with Burnley taking on Manchester City in the opening game. Football fans everywhere are invited to make their predictions - will it be a draw, or will Manchester City demonstrate their dominance and secure a victory? Throughout the season, members can predict scores for matches involving teams such as Luton Town, AFC Bournemouth, Manchester United, Chelsea, and Arsenal.

Predict Addict offers the ability to create custom mini-leagues. Members can now challenge their friends, colleagues, or rival football fans by establishing their private prediction leagues. This offers a chance for some friendly competition among peers while adding a social element to the game.

Since its inception in June 2006 for the FIFA World Cup, Predict Addict has been enjoyed by players worldwide with its engaging and user-friendly platform. What began as a small gathering of friends quickly evolved into a global community. Today, Predict Addict invites football fans everywhere to join this thriving community and begin making their predictions today.

Predict Addict has already gained acclaim for its successful prediction leagues, having organised competitions for the FIFA World Cup, the FA Premier League, and the Copa América. With the launch of the FA Premier League 2023/24 prediction league, the platform further solidifies its commitment to delivering high-quality prediction games for various football events.
