

Tom Kuhn, Recognized by BestAgents.us as a 2023 Top Agent

Tom's extensive background in technology, coupled with his passion for sales, makes him exceptionally capable of guiding his clients through the complexities of buying or selling real estate.

New York City, New York Jul 25, 2023 (Issuewire.com) - Detail-oriented, friendly, and reliable, Tom is a licensed real estate agent with Blue Marlin Real Estate in Merritt Island, Florida. He specializes in residential properties for both buyers and sellers, with a genuine commitment to helping others.

Renowned for his exceptional interpersonal skills, Tom is highly regarded for his methodical and well-organized approach to client interactions. With him, clients find themselves at ease, knowing they can rely on his consistent accessibility, eliminating the need to constantly pursue him. He prioritizes their needs and well-being above all else, ensuring they receive prompt, helpful answers and make informed decisions.

Prior to his career in real estate, Tom spent 35 years in the financial software and services industry, as a developer, systems analyst, Chief Technology Officer, and Senior Vice President of Research and Development. Having retired as a technology executive, he spent many years assisting in the sales process and always wanted to pursue a sales-oriented career where he could directly assist individuals.

Being an investor himself, Tom understands the process of purchasing beachside properties and remodeling them, enabling him to expertly guide his clients through both the home-buying and remodeling journey. Moreover, he offers valuable advice to sellers on preparing their homes for a successful sale.

Having achieved notable success, Tom views real estate as an avenue to continue helping people while remaining actively engaged. His ability to effectively communicate and establish strong connections with clients has earned him trust and respect in the real estate market, making him a valued and reliable figure.

Whether it's assisting first-time home buyers, guiding clients through property renovations, or advising sellers, his unwavering dedication and expertise ensure a seamless and rewarding real estate experience for all involved.

Outside of real estate, Tom enjoys traveling, playing racquetball, bicycling, dining out, and going to the movies.
