Louisburg, North Carolina Aug 30, 2023 (IssueWire.com) - Get Camera Ready and Make History in Franklin County! Dress to Impress in All White Attire – It's Your Time to Shine! Celebrate this Labor Day weekend while dancing to Southern Soul & RnB music at the All-White Party Lit Concert Labor Day Weekend With Les Long, presented by Team Airplay, Gdavis Productions & Films, and Pack House. The concert promises to be a day full of melodious live music, dancing, entertainment, delicious food, and unforgettable memories for the attendees. It will be held on Saturday, September 2, 2023, at the Pack House, Louisburg, NC 27549. Attendees are advised to bring their lawn chairs & tents. Gates will open at 1 PM, and the showtime will be at 3 PM.

Roi "Chip" Anthony, AKA "King of the Stage," will be the Headliner of the show. He is the latest and largest Southern Soul talent to emerge from Louisiana. His Popular songs are "Gonna Do Me," "Too Much to Lose," and "Thickness and much more!"

Celebrity MC Shirley Jones of the Jones Girls will host the concert. She is an R&B Singer who created some of the most glorious Soul music around with her sisters Valorie and Brenda, who had many hit singles. When it comes to R&B girl groups of the '70s and '80s, The Jones Girls are one of the most celebrated down to this day, with Philly Soul classics like "You Gonna Make Me Love Somebody Else," "I Just Love the Man," "Nights Over Egypt," and "Who Can I Run To?" (Which went to #1 in 1995 when covered by Xscape).

Superman of Soul Al Chauncey is from Raleigh, NC. He had the opportunity to write for Teddy Riley, Porscha Williams (RHOA), Tony Terry, Stetsasonic, Bone Crusher, Greg Nice, and more!

The concert's attendees will enjoy the charismatic stage presence of Nino The Gentleman. He will entertain the audience with his electrifying musical performance and timeless hits. His popular songs are "Cougar Women," "I Like It," and "I'm Coming Over." The concert will also feature a live musical performance from Southern Soul artist from Bamberg S.C. Klay Bankz. His birthday song is a popular hit.

Award-Winning Soul Diva Ms. Monique resides in Atlanta after living in South Florida for many years. One of her hit songs is "Mr. Do Right" feat Millie Jackson.

The Southern Soul Kid Young Thang T. Lyons will be performing his hits at the concert, including his new single hit "Young Thang.". Just 'N' will also perform many of his songs at the concert, along with his hit "Good Ol Lovin."

DJ Youngsoul & DJ Mikey D will be at the concert to keep the music flow going and the crowd dancing throughout the evening.

"On behalf of The Pack House and The Long Family, I welcome everyone attending this ultimate musical oasis. We're also excited to be working with Gdavis Productions & Films, and We Care Radio & Garrett Davis, and looking forward to developing a solid business relationship with them to organize future events and concerts like this one," said Les Long.

"We're Excited to not only partner with the Pack House but excited that this will be one of many events that we will be doing together. It is imperative that as a culture, we support and raise the awareness of each other rather than compete," said Garrett Davis (CEO/Founder of Gdavis Productions and Films). "That is why Gdavis Productions and Films is committed to not only working with the Les Long and Family and the Pack House but also to producing quality programming presented at their family venue that will be featured on Gdavis TV streaming on Roku, Amazon Fire, Apple TV, and any mobile device."
